

Wings

Wings of Black, wings of White,
Wings of Red, wings of Yellow.
Wings of Green, wings of Blue,
Wings of Brown and Purple too.

Wings of Black, wings of night,
Protect us from our darkest thoughts.

Wings of White, wings of light,
Keep us safe from a deadly plight.

Wings of Red, wings of war,
Shall keep the fight at bay today.

Wings of Yellow, wings of treasure,
Guardians of our precious jewels.

Wings of Green, wings of nature,
May gift us with much to wield.

Wings of Blue, wings of sky,
Will take us high above the clouds.

Wings of Brown, wings of earth,
Watch over us as we work the soil.

Wings of Purple, wings of beauty,
Gives us that which it possesses.

Dragon Wings, are always there,
Ready in spirit, ready in mind.
Nowadays they are not seen,
For most of us they don't exist.
They lie in the caves of imagination,
Waiting for those who still believe.
